WASHINGTON, D.C.

Dance Floor Drama

An excavator clears rubble after the East Wing of the White House is demolished on October 23, kicking off President Donald Trump's plan to build a $300 million ballroom. The new addition drew sharp criticism from Democrats, who are dismayed at the increasing cost of the project and the complete destruction of the East Wing—not included in Trump's initial plans—among other complaints.

Historic Heist

A French forensic officer examines a window of the Louvre Museum on Oct. 19, through which thieves stole eight jewels worth about $100 million in 1975. The burglars used a mechanical reach a balcony, cutting through glass cases in a four-minute heist. The 19th-century pieces belonged to the imperial and royal families. As Newsweek goes to press, two suspects had been arrested.

一台挖掘機在 10 月 23 日白宮東翼拆除後清理瓦礫，這標誌著唐納·川普總統建造價值 3 億美元舞廳計畫的啟動。這項新建設引來民主黨人的強烈批評，他們對於項目成本不斷增加、東翼的完全破壞（這不在川普最初的計畫中）等問題感到憂慮。
